NCI Building Systems Announces New $50 Million Stock Repurchase Program

HOUSTON, October 10, 2017 – NCI Building Systems, Inc. (NYSE: NCS) (the “Company”) announced today that its Board of Directors has authorized a new stock repurchase program for up to an aggregate of $50.0 million of the company’s outstanding common stock. To date, during the fourth quarter of fiscal 2017, under the previously announced September 2016 share repurchase program, the Company used $37.7 million to repurchase 2.56 million shares of its common stock at an average price of $14.75, completing the majority of the prior authorization.

Mr. Donald R. Riley President and Chief Executive Officer, commented, “Management and the Board of Directors are committed to returning value to our shareholders, as well as prudent management of our capital structure. Having completed last year’s stock repurchase plan, we believe that this new stock repurchase program, combined with the initiatives in front of us should continue to create long-term value for our shareholders.”

Under the stock repurchase program, the Company may repurchase shares in open-market purchases, in privately negotiated purchases or otherwise, in accordance with all applicable securities laws and regulations, including Rule 10b-18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The Company may commence such repurchases immediately, subject to compliance with applicable securities laws. The Company may enter into a pre-arranged stock trading plan in accordance with the guidelines specified under Rule 10b5-1 to effectuate the Company’s new stock repurchase program. The Company expects to finance any repurchases from a combination of cash on hand and cash provided by operating activities. The timing and method of any repurchases, which will depend on a variety of factors, including market conditions, are subject to results of operations, financial conditions, cash requirements and other factors, and may be suspended or discontinued at any time.

Forward Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as "believe," "anticipate," "guidance," "plan," "potential," "expect," "should," "will," "forecast" and similar expressions are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the "safe harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements reflect our current expectations, assumptions and/or beliefs concerning future events. As a result, these forward-looking statements rely on a number of assumptions, forecasts, and estimates and, therefore, these forward-looking statements are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that may cause the Company's actual performance to differ materially from that projected in such statements. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, the Company's belief in its strong operational and financial performance, as well as its expected ability to generate significant cash flow, and the Company's expectation to reduce its debt. Among the factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include, but are not limited to, industry cyclicalities and seasonalities and adverse weather conditions; challenging economic conditions affecting the nonresidential construction industry; volatility in the U.S. economy and abroad, generally, and in the credit markets; substantial indebtedness and our ability to incur substantially more indebtedness; our ability to generate significant cash flow required to service or refinance our existing debt, including the 8.25% senior notes due 2023, and obtain future financing; our ability to comply with the financial tests and covenants in our existing and future debt obligations; operational limitations or restrictions in connection with our debt; increases in interest rates; recognition of asset impairment charges; commodity price increases and/or limited availability of raw materials, including steel; our ability to make strategic acquisitions accretive to earnings; retention and replacement of key personnel; enforcement and obsolescence of intellectual property rights; fluctuations in customer demand; costs related to environmental clean-ups and liabilities; competitive activity and pricing pressure; increases in energy prices; volatility of the Company's stock price; dilutive effect on the Company's common stockholders of potential future sales of the Company's common stock held by our sponsor; substantial governance and other rights held by our sponsor; breaches of our information system security measures and damage to our major information management systems; hazards that may cause personal injury or property damage, thereby subjecting us to liabilities and possible losses, which may not be covered by insurance; changes in laws or regulations, including the Dodd-Frank Act; the timing and amount of our stock repurchases; and costs and other effects of legal and administrative proceedings, settlements, investigations, claims and other matters.
